CLASS HISTORY

On Sept. 1, 1930, twelve Freshmen entered the Henning High School to continue their education. Two weeks later the enrollment had increased to fifteen but Herman Deck was forced to withdraw on account of illness. Those answering to roll call were: Alberta Felgenhauer, Treasurer; Lyle Hamilton, Vice President; Carl Walters, President; George Daniels, Reporter; Lucile Morgan, Secretary; John Jackson, Athletic Board; Charles Morton, Pearl Watson, Herman Deck, Isabel Huffman, Ora McGinnis, Margaret Braden, Arlyn Moss, Lawrence Hudson, Honor Tutwiler, Evert Berglund, and Miss Myhre as Faculty Adviser.

On Sept. 12, we were initiated into the mystic order of H. C. H. S. as follows: electric shock, walking up and down steps blind-folded, walking on nails, eating bananas (which turned out to be candles), branded with the letter H, drinking soda pop, (but it tasted like vinegar to all of us.) Putting our hands in hot lead, and having eggs cracked on our heads to top it all off. After we were considered members of the H. C. H. S., we were entertained and refreshments were served by the Senior class of 1930.

On Sept. 19, we returned to the Seniors and upperclass members a party at Walnut Grove. Hot dogs were served and games played.

Twelve members took part in music—eight were in the orchestra, three in the Girls' chorus; eight boys participated in athletics.

When the roll was called August 31, 1931, five old members were missing: Herman Deck, Ora McGinnis, Margaret Braden, Arlyn Moss, and John Jackson. John Jackson continued his education at Armstrong High School. We gladly welcomed two new members, responding to the roll call as Joseph Anderson and Iola Shepler. Some months later Alberta Felgenhauer was forced to withdraw on account of illness at home. At the beginning of the second semester Dean Sperry joined us from Van Wert High School in Ohio, and Glenn Lusk, from Mansfield High School.

The class officers for this year were: Lawrence Hudson, President; Isabel Huffman, Vice-President; Lucille Morgan, Secretary; Iola Shepler, Reporter; Lyle Hamilton, Athletic Board; Mr. Hay, Faculty Adviser.

Sept. 5, 1932, our class welcomed three new members in Frank Rose, Herman Sager, and Ora Patten, from Normal, Ill. The class officers for our Junior Year were: Isabel Huffman, President; George Daniels, Vice-President; Lucille Morgan, Sec.-Treasurer; Glenn Lusk, Reporter; Lyle Hamilton, Athletic Board and Mrs. Burke, Faculty Adviser.

The class presented its first play "The Blue Bag." The Juniors entertained the Seniors at the annual Junior-Senior banquet at the High School Gymnasium. After the banquet both classes motored to Danville, where they enjoyed a photoplay at the Fischer Theatre. On the return trip how it did rain!

Sept. 4, 1933, the class of 1934 appeared again at H. C. H. S. to finish their course of education. At this time there were thirteen occupying the last two rows of seats on the east side of the assembly. The class officers were: Ora Patten, Reporter; Pearl Watson, Sec.-Treasurer; Dean Sperry, President; George Daniels, Vice-President; Lyle Hamilton, Athletic Board.

Later in the year Charles Morton, Herman Sagers and Frank Rose were no longer found among the Seniors. At the end of the first semester George Daniels, feeling he had enough education, quit school and took up the lumber business. Later, in the last semester, Pearl Watson no longer answered to roll call, but Alice Wynn and Ruth Edgington were added in her place.

The class of '34 presented their second play, "Here Comes Charlie". Being short of girls, they called upon Ruth Wyman and Lucile Elliot to take part.

On May 3, the Senior class sponsored the annual stunt night. Those participating and winning are as follows: Sophomores, First; Dramatic Class, Second; Freshmen, Third; Juniors, Fourth; and Music Class, Fifth.

—CARL WALTERS.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of '34, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make this our last will and testament:

I, Evert Berglund, do hereby will my ability to study to Wilbert Wilson.

I, George Daniels, do hereby will my curly hair to Martin Hanson.

I, Ruth Edgington, do hereby will my popularity among the boys to Mildred McGinnis.

I, Lyle Hamilton, do hereby bequeath my affections for a certain Junior girl to Raymond Arnold.

I, Lawrence Hudson, do hereby will my ability to sing to Merrill Robinett.

I, Glenn Lusk, do hereby will my right to go with the girls to James Seyfert.

I, Ora Patten, do hereby will my ability to giggle in school to Doris Gravat. (Don't ruin her "rep", Doris).

I, Dean Sperry, do hereby will my ability as cheer leader to Wood Nelson.

I, Honor Tutwiler, do hereby will my habit of being late to basketball tournaments to Verl Luttrell.

I, Carl Walters, do hereby bequeath my trombone to Herb Ashwood.

I, Alice Wynn, do hereby will my ability to graduate in three years to my beloved "little" sister, Abbie.

Like birds learning to fly, twenty-seven freshmen began a new step in life—high school. Before the end of the year our number had diminished to twenty-four.

The following year we were advanced to that higher station known as sophomore. We found four faces missing but welcomed three new members—Ora McGinnis, Doris Gravat, and Loren Beckley.

In the year 1934, we find ourselves in the realm of juniordom. Our group is the same with the exception of losing Georgia Penny and Juanita Riley. At the end of the second semester Loren Beckley quit school. On November 15, we gave our Junior Play, "Silas Smidge From Turnip Ridge".

On September 5, 1932, thirty-one Freshmen entered Henning High School. During the first few weeks of school our enrollment increased to thirty three. dropping back to thirty one, when Evelyn Porter and Claris Lockhart quit.

Coming back in '33 for more instruction, we found that two new members joined our group—Dale Nelson and Roy Mackey. By the end of the first semester Dale, Roy, and Lester Mertz had dropped out. Beginning the first semester, we lost Maxine Anderson and Doris Cooley, adding to our group, Joseph Anderson. Before the end of the second semester of '34 Walter Patten had also dropped out of our class.

Third Row—Edgington, Hickman, Beck, Anderson, Coach Hay, Mourer, Luttrell, Hanson, Ashwood.

Basketball practice began Oct. 19 with a large number of boys reporting. Among these were five lettermen: Capt. Honor Tutwiler, Lawrence Hudson, Carl Walters, Woodrow Tutwiler and Lyle Hamilton.

The first game of the season was played at Wellington on Nov. 3. Wellington won easily by the score 35 to 7.

After another week of practice East Lynn came here and went home defeated by the score of 22 to 14.

Nov. 17 we motored to Potomac and lost a rough game, 25 to 7.

Nov. 23 Alvin came here and went home with a victory: score, 31 to 27.

Our next game was with Hoopeston. We lost a close game with them. Score, Hoopeston 24, Henning 23.

On Dec. 8 Wellington returned our visit and after three quarters of close playing they broke into the lead and won 32 to 19.

Dec. 15 we went to Bismarck and won our second game of the season, 15-13.

Dec. 21 we motored to Rossville and were defeated 23-19.

Dec. 29-30 we played in the Holiday Tournament at Bismarck. Our first game was with Bismarck and we won in an overtime, 18 to 15. Our next game was with Hoopeston for the championship. We defeated them 14 to 13.

For the third time, on Jan. 12, we played Bismarck and defeated them again. This time the score was 17 to 13.

Jan. 18 we played Alvin in the County Tournament and were defeated 27 to 24.

Feb. 2 we played Rossville here and defeated them.

Feb. 8 Potomac came here and defeated us 50 to 10.

Feb. 16 we traveled to East Lynn and we were defeated 14-13.

Feb. 21 we went to Rossville to play a game for the benefit of the Boy Scouts of Rossville. We won in an overtime 24-22.

Feb. 23 we went to Alvin to repay their visit. We won 31-23.

Mar. 2 we went to Armstrong to play the last scheduled game of the season, and were defeated 30-20.

March 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 was the District Tournament. We played Danville, on Wednesday night, March 7, and were defeated 38-4.

The following boys earned letters:

Seniors—Lawrence Hudson, Lyle Hamilton, Carl Walters, Evert Berglund.
Juniors—Marvin Allison, Martin Hanson, Clements Edgington.
Sophomores—Robert Beck, Herbert Ashwood.
Freshmen—Verl Luttrell.

Paul Hamilton and Stanley McConnell received a manager's letter. Dean Sperry and Lucile Elliot were given cheer leader letters.

Each eager soul has reached the goal,
Our triumph now attaining;
So give a cheer, to comrades dear,
And classes still remaining.

Our tale is told, our banners rolled,
Our vic'tries we have won;
With aching heart our class departs,
Dear class of '34!

'34 CLASS POEM

Listen, my people, and you shall hear
The class history this year.
They seem to be real studious and are willing to work;
They look real ambitious and never shirk.

First of the gang is Dean, the president of all,
He's pretty smart but not so tall.

Second is Lyle, who wouldn't cheat,
And as to basketball he couldn't be beat.

Third is Honor, built so stout and so strong,
He's built to last a whole life long.

Fourth is Lawrence, an athlete, too;
He helps win our games which are rather few.

Fifth is Alice, black hair, and brown eyes,
She's the first gal with the rest of these guys.

Sixth is Ruth who speaks the truth.
She's the second dame of the Senior booth.

Seventh is Evert, whom we mustn't forget,
For of this bunch he's the teacher's pet.

Eighth is Ora, the frolic of all.
She's very well liked and rather tall.

Last of the crowd who brings up the end
Is commonly called "Bill" but formerly Glenn.

Mr. Rumble (in Physics class): "There's an insane asylum at Oakland City, where I came from.

Mr. Hay: A fool can ask more questions than a wise man can answer.
Glenn Lusk: That's why we failed.

Carl Walters (in Civics): How much salary do rural mail carriers in the city get?

Book Salesman: This book will do half your work for you.
Lyle Hamilton: Good! I'll take two.

Mr. Rumble: How many times have I told you to be at school on time?
Richard Lanham: I don't know. I thought you were keeping score.

Merrill Robinett: Which travels the faster, heat or cold?
Stanley McConnell: Heat, because you can catch cold.
